Panel 1

High overhead, we watch a speeding Lawmaster with a rad-cloaked Judge Dredd riding it, through a destroyed sector. The entire place is in ruins, some buildings have survived better than others, but certainly nothing is intact. This is what the 23rd centuries bombs can do to a city.

Caption Sector 73 was destroyed in the first wave of the Apocalypse War.

Caption Now, nearly 40 years later, the residue radiation keeps it uninhabitable and impossible to monitor remotely.

Caption Despite that, justice must function. Even here.
